

Wednesday, July 7, 2010

Real Deal

What companies are moving, staying or relocating?

Circor International and Modis renew at Burlington's Corporate Drive

CB Richard Ellis/New England facilitated two lease renewals totaling 17,600 square feet at Burlington Centre, a 600,000 square foot master-planned office park located in Burlington. The firm has arranged an 8,919 square foot renewal with Circor International, a manufacturer of fluid-control valves and accessories, on the first floor of 25 Corporate Drive and an 8,316 square foot renewal and expansion with Modis, a provider of information technology staffing and recruitment services, on the second floor of 35 Corporate Drive. The CBRE team of Kerry Olson, vice president, and Jason Levendusky, first vice president, represented Multi-Employer Property Trust in both transactions. Circor International was represented by Jonathan Varholak and Ron Friedman of Richards Barry Joyce & Partners while Modis was self-represented.